MOTION TO REMAND

Comes now Wyatt Finch and, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c), moves this Court to remand the above-styled matter to the Circuit Court of Chambers County, Alabama. The absence of removal jurisdiction mandates the requested remand. As specific grounds, Finch states as follows:

Complaint

1. On September 19, 2007, in the Circuit Court of Chambers County, Alabama, Finch filed a complaint in which the named party -defendants were State Farm Fire and Casualty Company ("State Farm") and Donny Holley.

2. Finch asserted that he was an Alabama resident. Complaint ¶ 1. Finch alleged that Holley was “an agent, representative and employee of State Farm” and was an Alabama resident. Complaint ¶ 3.

3. Finch further factually alleged (1) that Holley procured a State Farm homeowners-insurance policy covering Finch’s real property in Valley, Alabama; (2) that, on April 19, 2006, Finch’s home “was damaged by wind and hail;” (3) that a State Farm adjuster informed Finch that the roof damage “could be fixed with patching only” and “refused to pay for the true cost of repairs;” (4) that a second State Farm adjuster “wrote an estimate indicating that the plaintiff had suffered no damage;” (5) that Finch obtained several estimates for repairing the damage and submitted those estimates to the adjustor; and (6) that, “the adjuster amended his estimate and offered to pay for a portion of the plaintiff’s covered damages but failed to pay the full value of the plaintiff’s claims or to offer the full value of the plaintiff’s claims.” Complaint ¶¶ 5-11.

4. Against State Farm, Finch asserted a breach-of-contract cause of action and a bad-faith cause of action. Complaint ¶¶ 14-16.

5. In a separate count, Finch asserted a claim for negligent or wanton failure to procure desired insurance coverage. Complaint ¶ 17. Relevant to this cause of action were the factual allegations that State Farm engaged in “a pattern and practice of underpaying or denying valid claims as a cost saving measures” and in “a pattern and practice to victimize other similarly situated individuals in the same manner.” Complaint ¶¶ 12-13.

6. In the complaint, while Finch sought both compensatory damages and punitive damages, he requested no specific amounts as to either. Complaint at 4.

Notice of Removal

7. On October 23, 2007, State Farm and Holley jointly filed a notice of removal. Because State Farm asserted that Holley is a fraudulently joined defendant, Holley did not need join in or consent to the removal and plaintiff will proceed as if the sole removing defendant is State Farm.

8. As the source of federal subject-matter jurisdiction, State Farm referenced only diversity-of-citizenship jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332. Notice of Removal ¶¶ 6, 8 & 14.

9. State Farm contended that Holley “was fraudulently joined to this action. Notice of Removal ¶ 3. In support of this contention, State Farm and Holley relied on Holley’s contemporaneously filed motion to dismiss.

10. State Farm further contended “that there is a sufficient basis that the jurisdictional amount in controversy could possibly be met.” Notice of Removal ¶

8. As part of this contention, State Farm wrote:

... A copy of a recent judgment from the same county with the same attorney for the plaintiff, the same defense attorney and State Farm Life Insurance Company is attached as Exhibit "D." This judgment clearly shows a compensatory award well under the jurisdictional amount, when combined with punitive damages in Chambers County, Alabama, can and most likely will result in an amount which far exceeds $75,000.

If the above is reviewed in toto, Defendants avers [sic] that they have met the evidentiary burden set forth in Lowe's [OK'd Used Cars, Inc. v. Acceptance, Ins. Co.], 995 F. Supp. 1388, 1389 (M.D. Ala. 1998),] requiring that a "defendant may only establish removal jurisdiction by showing to a 'legal certainty that the plaintiff would not recover less than the federal jurisdictional amount if the plaintiff prevailed.'" Id. at 1389.

Complaint ¶¶ 11-12.

11. The referenced "Exhibit D" is a single-page "Order on Post-Trial Motions" entered in a matter styled George Alford v. State Farm Insurance Corporation and Donny Holley, Civil Action No. CV-01-207 (Ala. Cir. Ct., Chambers County, Ala. Jan. 12, 2006). In said order, it is clearly stated that the lawsuit was commenced on August 23, 2001; that claims of breach of contract, conversion, and suppression were asserted in the complaint; and that only the suppression claim was submitted to the jury. State Farm offered no additional information regarding the Alford lawsuit.

General Legal Principles

12. Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction. Kokkonen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 511 U.S. 375, 114 S. Ct. 1673, 128 L. Ed. 2d 391 (1994); Burns v. Windsor Ins. Co., 31 F.3d 1092, 1095 (11th Cir. 1994).

13. Removal statutes must be strictly construed because Congressional intent in enacting removal legislation was to restrict removal jurisdiction. Shamrock Oil & Gas Corp. v. Streets, 313 U.S. 100, 108, 61 S. Ct. 868, 85 L. Ed. 2d 1214 (1921); Lane v. Champion Internat'l Corp., 827 F. Supp. 701, 705 (S.D. Ala. 1993).

14. Because federal removal jurisdiction is very limited, the remanding of a removed case is favored where the existence of federal subject-matter jurisdiction is not absolutely clear. Burns v. Windsor Ins. Co., 31 F.3d at 1095. See also Russell Corp. v. American Home Assurance Co., 264 F.3d 1040 (11th Cir. 2001) (Because removal statutes must be construed narrowly, “all uncertainties as to removal jurisdiction are to be resolved in favor of remand.” 264 F.3d at 1050 (citing Burns)). “A presumption in favor of remand is necessary because if a federal court reaches the merits of a pending motion in a removed case where subject-matter jurisdiction may be lacking it deprives a state court of its right under the Constitution to resolve controversies in its own courts.” Klempner v.

Northwestern Mut. Ins. Co., 196 F. Supp. 2d 1233, 1237 (S.D. Fla. 2001)(citations omitted).

15. The removing party bears the burden of demonstrating the existence of federal jurisdiction. Wilson v. Republic Iron & Steel Co., 257 U.S. 92, 97, 42 S. Ct. 35, 660 L. Ed. 2d 144 (1921); Leonard v. Enterprise Rent a Car, 279 F.3d 967, 972 (11th Cir. 2002).

Failure to Satisfy Jurisdictional -Threshold Amount

16. A federal district court “shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions where the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is between ... citizens of different States.” 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a). There can be no diversity-of-citizenship-based subject-matter jurisdiction absent satisfaction of the $75,000 threshold amount.

17. In the notice of removal, State Farm made no mention of the opinion in Lowery v. Alabama Power Co., 483 F.3d 1184 (11th Cir. 2007), and its impact of the issue of a removing party’s satisfying the jurisdictional -threshold amount. State Farm made no mention of opinions that have applied Lowery in factual scenarios similar to that in the present matter and granted motions to remand due to a failure to meet the burden of proving satisfaction of the jurisdictional -amount threshold.

18. In Ellis Motor Cars, Inc. v. Westport Ins. Corp., No. 2:07-cv-20-WKW, 2007 WL 1991573 (M.D. Ala. Jul. 5, 2007), vehicles on the plaintiff's dealership lot sustained hail damage. In response to Ellis Motor Cars' submitted claim, Westport paid the dealership $154,000. Because it believed that the actually due benefits exceeded $154,000, the dealership filed a complaint in the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Alabama, asserting claims of breach of contract, fraudulent misrepresentation, negligence and wantonness and seeking unspecified compensatory damages and punitive damages.

19. The district court judge determined that it "must determine the propriety of removal on the basis of the 'limited universe of evidence available when the motion to remand is filed' in accordance with the scheme set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) and § 1447(c)." 2007 WL 1991573 at * 1 (quoting Lowery, 483 F.3d at 1213-14). In Lowery, the Eleventh Circuit wrote: "If the jurisdictional amount is either stated clearly on the face of the documents before the court, or readily deducible from them, then the court has jurisdiction. If not, the court must remand. Under this approach, jurisdiction is either evident from the removing documents or remand is appropriate." 483 F.3d at 1211.

20. The district court judge observed that, in its complaint, Ellis Motor Cars sought "full compensation for the damages to [the] automobiles." 2007 WL 1991573 at * 2 (quoting the complaint; emphasis added by court). The district court judge further observed that “[t]he amount of full compensation that the plaintiff seeks is nowhere stated on the face of the removal documents nor is there a hint as to the value of the claim.” Id. The removing parties proffered no evidence as to how much more than $154,000 the dealership thought that it was entitled to under the subject policy. The district court judge noted that, “[u]nder Lowery, districts courts are no longer able to ‘speculate in an attempt to make up for the notice’s failings.’” Id. (quoting Lowery, 483 F.3d at 1215). The district court judge decided that he was barred from speculating that the dealership desired $75,000 or more in additional benefits or compensation for the damage to the vehicles because “[t]o do so would reduce the defendants’ burden of establishing the amount in controversy by a preponderance of the evidence to an ambiguous suggestion of the jurisdictional amount.” Id.

21. In Carswell v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., No. 2:06-cv-01098-WKW, 2007 WL 1697003 (M.D. Ala. Jun. 12, 2007), Sally Carswell was injured while shopping at a Sears store when a glass shelf fell on her. In the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Alabama, she and her husband filed a complaint seeking unspecified damages for personal injuries and loss of consortium.

22. Sears sought to establish satisfaction of the jurisdictional-amount threshold by relying on the awards in prior similar cases. The district court judge held that “Sears’ device for supplying an otherwise unspecified claim for damages is no longer allowed in the Eleventh Circuit.” 2007 WL 1697003 at * 1 (citing Lowery). The district court judge wrote:

The Lowery court explains why outside evidence of jury verdicts from other tort cases is insufficient:

As such, the evidence is not of the sort contemplated by § 1446(b) [W]e question whether such general evidence is ever of much use in establishing the value of claims in any one particular suit [T]he facts regarding other cases tell us nothing about the value of the claims in this lawsuit [W]e cannot possibly ascertain how similar the current action is to those the defendants cite.

[Lowery, 483 F.3d] at 1221.

2007 WL 1697003 at * 1 n.2. The district court judge further wrote: “District courts in this circuit are no longer able to ‘speculate in an attempt to make up for the notice’s failings,’ nor are courts able to consider “evidence regarding the value of other tort claims.”” 2007 WL 1697003 at * 1 (quoting Lowery, 483 F.3d at 1214-15 & 1221).

23. In the present matter, as in Ellis Motor Cars, the removing defendants proffered no evidence of the amount of insurance benefits being sought. This Court knows only that Finch sustained some damage to the roof on his home and that State Farm refused to pay his submitted estimate or estimates of the cost of repairing the damage. State Farm did not submit copies of the estimates referenced in the complaint. This Court can only speculate as to what amount Finch claimed and State Farm refused to pay. Pursuant to Lowery, this Court is barred from engaging in such speculation and must find that State Farm failed to satisfy its burden.

24. In the present matter, as in Carswell, the removing defendant seeks to rely on the result in a prior litigation. In fact, State Farm seeks to rely solely on the result in a single prior litigation. After Lowery, the results in prior litigations are meaningless in satisfying the burden of showing that the amount in controversy is $75,000 or more.

25. Moreover, even if the referenced prior litigation could have any evidentiary significance, State Farm utterly failed to demonstrate any significant similarity between the Alford case and the present matter. In Alford, State Farm Insurance Corporation and not State Farm Fire & Casualty Company was the defendant insurer. The verdict was entered based on a suppression claim ; breach-of-contract and bad-faith claims were not submitted to the jury . Plaintiff would inform this Court that an examination of the Alford case would reveal (1) that the subject policy was a life-insurance policy, (2) that Alford contended that he was falsely told that the premium-return value of the policy was $20,000, and (3) that Alford alleged that he detrimentally relied on the represented premium-return value. The Alford case is far too factually distinguishable from the present matter to afford any basis for assessing the amount in controversy in the present matter.

26. In summation, State Farm proffered no evidence to show that the amount in controversy is $75,000 or more. State Farm asks this Court to speculate, something that this Court is prohibited from doing. Specifically, State Farm provided this Court with no evidence for determining how much Finch sought to repair the damage to his roof, leaving this Court to speculate whether he is seeking a few thousand dollars or tens of thousand dollars. A remand is mandated due to State Farm's failure to proffer any evidence to support its bold assertion that it is possible that the jurisdictional -amount threshold may be met.

Fraudulent-Joinder Question

27. Because a remand is mandated due to the failure to prove satisfaction of the jurisdictional -amount threshold, Finch does not have to address the assertion that Holley was fraudulently joined as party -defendant. Yet, Finch will briefly address this assertion.

28. The removing party has the burden of proving any asserted fraudulent joinder. Crowe v. Coleman, 113 F.3d 1536, 1538 (11th Cir. 1997). A claim of fraudulent joinder must be supported by clear and convincing evidence. Parks v. New York Times Co., 308 F.2d 474, 478 (5th Cir. 1962), cert. denied, 376 U.S. 949, 84 S. Ct. 964, 11 L. Ed. 2d 969 (1964).

29. In determining whether a colorable claim is asserted against a non-diverse defendant, the court must “evaluate factual allegations in the light most favorable to the plaintiff and resolve any uncertainties about the applicable law in the plaintiff’s favor.” Pacheco de Perez v. AT&T Co., 139 F.3d 1368, 1380 (11th Cir. 1998). “[I]f there is even a possibility that [a] state court would find that the complaint states a cause of action against any ... resident defendant, [a federal court must] find that the joinder was proper and remand [the] case to state court.” Crowe v. Coleman, 113 F.3d 1536, 1538 (11th Cir. 1997). “The plaintiff need not have a winning case against the allegedly fraudulent defendant; he need only have a possibility of stating a valid cause of action in order for the joinder to be legitimate.” Triggs v. John Crump Toyota, Inc., 154 F.3d 1284, 1287 (11th Cir. 1998)(emphasis in original). The “jurisdictional inquiry [in addressing an assertion of fraudulent joinder] ‘must not subsume substantive determination.’ ... When considering a motion for remand, federal courts are not to weigh the merits of a plaintiff’s claim beyond determining whether it is an arguable one under state law.” Crowe, 113 F.3d at 1538 (citation omitted).

30. In Henderson v. Washington Nat. Ins. Co., 454 F.3d 1278 (11th Cir. 2006), the Eleventh Circuit clearly chastised a district court judge for overstepping “the scrupulous respect for the institutional equilibrium between the federal and state judiciaries that our federal system demands.” 454 F.3d at 1284. This institutional equilibrium mandates deference to a state court in deciding if a non-diverse defendant has been fraudulently joined because, under the applicable state law, no viable cause of action has been or can be asserted against such non-diverse defendant. While a federal district judge is capable of interpreting and applying Alabama law, under the principles governing removal jurisdiction, a federal district judge must refrain from doing so unless there is clear and convincing evidence that there is no possibility that a state court judge might find that a colorable claim has been asserted against the non-diverse defendant.

31. In the notice of removal, State Farm devoted but a single paragraph to their allegation that Holley has been fraudulently joined as a party-defendant and incorporated by reference Holley's contemporaneously filed motion to dismiss. In his motion to dismiss, Holley argued that, in addressing his request for a Rule 12(b)(6)-based dismissal, this Court would have to apply the new standard, namely a standard found in Bell Atlantic v. Twombly, 550 U.S. ___, 127 S. Ct. 1955, 167 L. Ed. 2d 929, 2007 WL 1461066 (2007).

32. State Farm proffered no legal authority that the Supreme Court of Alabama has adopted any new standard or the Twombly standard that an Alabama circuit court must apply in ruling on a Rule 12(b)(6)-based motion to dismiss. With regard to a federal removal jurisdiction, the question is not how a federal district court would rule on the non-diverse defendant's motion to dismiss but, instead, is how a state court would rule on the non-diverse defendant's motion to dismiss. This Court is restricted to assessing whether State Farm can show with clear and convincing evidence that there is no possibility that a state court would deny Holley's request for a Rule 12(b)(6)-based dismissal.

33. Attached hereto and marked as "Plaintiff's Exhibit A" is a copy of a pleading titled "Defendants State Farm Fire & Casualty Company and Mike Spear's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings" that was filed in a matter styled Robert and Theresa Hodge v. State Farm Fire & Casualty Company, Mike Spear, et al., Civil Action No. CV-06-93 (Ala. Cir. Ct., Chambers County, Ala.). The Hodge case was brought in the same county as the present matter. Spear, like Holley, was a State Farm agent and sold a State Farm homeowners-insurance policy to the Hodges. The Hodge lawsuit arose when, like in the present matter, there was storm-caused damage to the insureds' residence and State Farm refused to pay the amount of benefits sought. The Hodges asserted a negligent-failure-to-procure claim against the agent. State Farm and Spear requested a judgment on the pleadings as to the asserted negligent-procurement claim. They argued that the "claim for negligent procurement is based on [the] allegations that the policy which was provided by State Farm did not provide coverage for [the] dwelling and personal property for damage caused by wind" but, "as evidenced by the policy itself, [the] policy [did] in fact provide coverage for wind damage." This is the same argument now made by State Farm in contending that Holley was fraudulently joined and by Holley in contending that no viable cause of action can be asserted against him.

34. Attached hereto and marked as "Plaintiff's Exhibit B" is the Hodges' opposing memorandum brief.

35. Attached hereto and marked as "Plaintiff's Exhibit C" is the state court's denial of the motion for a judgment on the pleadings. Clearly, the state court judge found that a viable failure-to-procure claim had been asserted by the Hodges against State Farm and Spear, the selling agent. This denial evinces the possibility, if not probability, that an Alabama circuit judge would deny Holley's Rule 12(b)(6)-based motion to dismiss.

36. In summation, State Farm fails to demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that an Alabama circuit judge would find that Finch has not or cannot assert a viable cause of action against Holley based on the factual allegations contained in the complaint. Therefore, a remand is mandated.

Concluding Remarks

37. State Farm ignored the current applicable law regarding a removing party proving satisfaction of the jurisdictional -amount threshold. State Farm proffered no supporting evidence and simply asked this Court to speculate as to the amount in controversy. In addition, State Farm relied solely on the result in a clearly factually distinguishable lawsuit involving a “sister” company, a life insurance policy, and a suppression claim. State Farm endeavored only to argue why this Court might grant Holley’s motion to dismiss but ignored its obligation to show by clear and convincing evidence that an Alabama circuit court would have to deny a motion to dismiss filed by Holley. State Farm failed to demonstrate the existence of diversity-of-citizenship-based subject-matter jurisdiction and failed to demonstrate the existence of any removal jurisdiction. A remand is mandated.

38. Finch reserves the right to file a supporting memorandum brief or a brief in response to any brief State Farm files in opposition to this motion to remand.

WHEREFORE, Wyatt Finch moves this Court to enter an order remanding this matter to the Circuit Court of Chambers County, Alabama.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF CHAMBERS COUNTY, ALABAMA

ROBERT and THERESA HODGE,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

STATE FARM FIRE & CASUALTY
COMPANY, MIKE SPEAR, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. CV-06-93

DEFENDANTS STATE FARM FIRE & CASUALTY COMPANY AND MIKE SPEAR'S MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

COME NOW Defendants, State Farm Fire & Casualty Company (hereinafter "State Farm") and Mike Spear (hereinafter "Spear"), and file this Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings pursuant to ALABAMA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 12(c). In support of said motion, Defendant Spear states the following:

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs' Complaint arises from their submission of an insurance claim to State Farm regarding alleged wind damage to their home on or about August 22, 2005. (Plaintiffs' Complaint and First Amendment to Complaint). Plaintiffs' Complaint alleges breach of contract and bad faith against State Farm and negligent procurement against both State Farm and Spear. As will be demonstrated herein, Count III of Plaintiffs' Complaint is due to be dismissed as a matter of law.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW

ALABAMA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 12(c) allows any party to move for judgment on the pleadings. The purpose of Rule 12(c) is to dispose "of a case when the material facts are not in dispute.” Willis v. Shadow Lawn Memorial Park, 709 So.2d 1241, 1242 (Ala.Civ.App. 1998).

When a party files a motion for judgment of the pleadings, the trial court reviews the pleadings filed in the case and, if the pleadings show that no genuine issue of material fact is presented, the trial court will enter a judgment for the party entitled to a judgment according to the law.

Id. at 1242. A certified copy of the subject policy referenced in Plaintiffs’ Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The policy, being “integral” to Plaintiffs’ claims, may be considered by the Court without converting this motion into a motion for summary judgment. See Deerman v. Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp., 955 F. Supp. 1393, 1397 (N. D. Ala.1997).

III. ARGUMENT

Count III of Plaintiffs’ Complaint alleges Defendants State Farm and Spear breached a duty to fairly and adequately procure insurance on behalf of the Plaintiffs. (Plaintiffs’ Complaint, ¶ 12). However, on its face, Plaintiffs’ Complaint and Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint are void of any genuine issue of material fact as to their negligent procurement claim.

In Count III of Plaintiffs’ Complaint, “Negligent Procurement of Insurance,” Plaintiffs aver:

12. Defendants SPEAR and STATE FARM undertook a duty to fairly and adequately procure insurance on behalf of the plaintiffs. This duty was breached and as a result the plaintiffs have been damaged.

(Plaintiffs’ Complaint, p. 4). However, in ¶ 5 of Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint, they concede that the policy of insurance procured by Spear through State Farm did in fact provide the coverage Plaintiffs sought.

5. On or about August 2, 1999, Defendant SPEAR, procured for valuable consideration, a policy of homeowners insurance for plaintiffs for their real property located at 1071 County Road 267, LaFayette, AL 36862-3517. Defendant, STATE FARM, wrote said policy of insurance. Said policy of insurance provided coverage for the “dwelling” and “personal property” for wind damage.”

(Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint, p. 1 (emphasis added)). Plaintiffs further admit that “pursuant to the terms and conditions of plaintiffs’ contract, wind damage is a covered peril. (Plaintiffs’ Complaint, ¶ 8, p.3).

In Rutley v. Country Skillet Poultry Co., 549 So.2d 82 (Ala.1989), the court held that a claim for negligently failing to provide insurance coverage would still be governed by the elements necessary to prove an ordinary claim of negligence, said elements being “(1) a duty to a foreseeable plaintiff, (2) a breach of that duty, (3) proximate cause, and (4) injury/damage.” Id. at 85. The existence of a duty to a plaintiff is fundamental to any claim of negligence. Patrick v. Union State Bank, 681 So. 2d 1364, 1367 (Ala. 1996). Whether there is a duty to the Plaintiff is the threshold inquiry. Ledbetter v. United American Ins. Co., 624 So. 2d 1371, 1373 (Ala. 1993). The existence of a duty is a question of law to be determined by a trial judge. State Farm Fire and Casualty Company v. Owen, 729 So. 2d 834, 839 (Ala. 1999).

Plaintiffs’ claim for negligent procurement is based on their allegations that the policy which was provided by State Farm did not provide coverage for their dwelling and personal property for damage caused by wind. However, by Plaintiffs’ own admission and as evidenced by the policy itself, Plaintiffs’ policy does in fact provide coverage for wind damage. The basis of this suit, rather, appears to be Plaintiffs’ dissatisfaction with the benefits paid pursuant to their wind claim. Said dispute is articulated in Counts I and II of Plaintiffs’ Complaint alleging breach of contract and bad faith against State Farm. Plaintiffs make it clear throughout both their Complaint and First Amended Complaint that the impetus behind this litigation is the payments and repairs made under the policy.

Plaintiffs admit that State Farm has issued payments and allege the repairs made were inadequate. (Plaintiffs' Complaint, ¶ 8, p.3). By the very allegations of both their Complaint and First Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs point to no facts which would support a negligent procurement claim.

A claim for negligent procurement necessarily requires that Spear or State Farm failed to procure a policy which provided the necessary coverage. However, by Plaintiffs' own admission, there was no breach of duty to procure a policy which provided coverage for wind damage by either Defendant as Plaintiffs readily admit the policy at issue in this litigation did in fact provide coverage for wind damage. On its face, Plaintiffs' Complaint negates the requisite elements for a claim of negligent or wanton procurement due to Plaintiffs multiple admissions that the policy they purchased from State Farm through Defendant Spear did contain coverage for wind damage. The material facts are not in dispute and judgment in favor of Defendants State Farm and Spear as to Count III of Plaintiffs' Complaint is warranted pursuant to the holding in Willis.

We do not insure for any loss to the property described in Coverage A which consists of, or is directly and immediately caused by, one or more of the perils listed in items a. through n. below, regardless of whether the loss occurs suddenly or gradually, involves isolated or widespread damage, arises from natural or external forces, or occurs as a result of any combination of these:

- a. collapse, except as specifically provided in SECTION I - ADDITIONAL COVERAGES, Collapse;

- b. freezing of a plumbing, heating, air conditioning or automatic fire protective sprinkler system; or of a household appliance, or by discharge, leakage or overflow from within the system or appliance caused by freezing. This exclusion only applies while the dwelling is vacant, unoccupied or being constructed. This exclusion does not apply if you have used reasonable care to:

- (1) maintain heat in the dwelling; or
- (2) shut off the water supply and drain the system and appliances of water;

- c. freezing, thawing, pressure or weight of water or ice, whether driven by wind or not, to a fence, pavement,

- f. continuous or repeated seepage or leakage of water or steam from a:

(1) heating, air conditioning or automatic fire protective sprinkler system;

(2) household appliance; or

(3) plumbing system, including from, within or around any shower stall, shower bath, tub installation, or other plumbing fixture, including the walls, ceilings or floors;

which occurs over a period of time and results in deterioration, corrosion, rust, mold, or wet or dry rot. If loss to covered property is caused by water steam not otherwise excluded, we will cover the cost of tearing out and replacing any part of the structure necessary to repair the system or appliance. We do not cover loss to the system or appliance from which the water or steam escaped;

- g. wear, tear, marring, scratching, deterioration, inherent vice, latent defect and mechanical breakdown;
- h. corrosion, electrolysis, or rust;
- i. mold, or wet or dry rot;

- n. seizure by a governmental authority.

However, we do insure for any resulting loss from items a. through n. unless the resulting loss is itself a Loss Not Insured by this Section.

2. We do not insure under any coverage for any loss which would not have occurred in the absence of one or more of the following excluded events. We do not insure for such loss regardless of: (a) the cause of the excluded event; or (b) other causes of the loss; or (c) whether other causes acted concurrently or in any sequence with the excluded event to produce the loss; or (d) whether the event occurs suddenly or gradually, involves isolated or widespread damage, arises from natural or external forces, or occurs as a result of any combination of these:

- a. Ordinance or Law, meaning enforcement of any ordinance or law regulating the construction, repair, demolition, sale, occupancy or placement of a dwelling or other structure, unless specifically provided under this policy.

Earth movement includes but is not limited to earthquake, landslide, mudflow, sinkhole, subsidence and erosion. Earth movement also includes volcanic explosion or lava flow, except as specifically provided in SECTION I - ADDITIONAL COVERAGES, Volcanic Action.

We do insure for any direct loss by fire, explosion other than explosion of a volcano, theft, or breakage of glass or safety glazing materials which are part of the dwelling resulting from earth movement, provided the resulting loss is itself a Loss Insured.

- c. Water Damage, meaning:

- (1) water from outside the plumbing system that enters through sewers or drains, or water which enters into and overflows from within a sump pump, sump pump well or any other system designed to remove subsurface water which is drained from the foundation area; or
- (2) natural water below the surface of the ground, including water which exerts pressure on, or seeps or leaks through a building, sidewalk, driveway, foundation, swimming pool or other structure.

However, we do insure for any direct loss by fire, explosion or theft resulting from water damage, provided the resulting loss is itself a Loss Insured.

- e. War, including any undeclared war, civil war, insurrection, rebellion, revolution, warlike act by a military force or military personnel, destruction or seizure or use for a military purpose, and including any consequence of any of these. Discharge of a nuclear weapon shall be deemed a warlike act even if accidental.
- f. Nuclear Hazard, meaning any nuclear reaction, radiation, or radioactive contamination, all whether controlled or uncontrolled or however caused, or any consequence of any of these. Loss caused by the nuclear hazard shall not be considered loss caused by fire, explosion or smoke. However, we do insure for direct loss by fire resulting from the nuclear hazard.

- g. Conversion, Embezzlement or Secretion by the selling dealer or by any person in lawful possession or custody of the insured property.
 - h. Any Loss Insured other than fire while the dwelling is in transit.

3. We do not insure under any coverage for any loss consisting of one or more of the items below. Further, we do not insure for loss described in paragraphs 1. and 2. immediately above regardless of whether one or more of the following: (a) directly or indirectly cause, contribute to or aggravate the loss; or (b) occur before, at the same time, or after the loss or any other cause of the loss:

However, we do insure for any resulting loss from items a. and b. unless the resulting loss is itself a Loss Not Insured by this Section.

SECTION I - CONDITIONS

1. Insurable Interest and Limit of Liability. Even if more than one person has an insurable interest in the property covered, we shall not be liable:
- a. to the insured for an amount greater than the insured's interest; or
 - b. for more than the applicable limit of liability.
2. Your Duties After Loss. After a loss to which this insurance may apply, you shall see that the following duties are performed:
- a. give immediate notice to us or our agent. Also notify the police if the loss is caused by theft. Also notify the credit card company or bank if the loss involves a credit card or bank fund transfer card;
 - b. protect the property from further damage or loss, make reasonable and necessary temporary repairs required to protect the property, keep an accurate record of repair expenditures;

- d. as often as we reasonably require:
 - (1) exhibit the damaged property;

 - (3) submit to and subscribe, while not in the presence of any other insured:
 - (a) statements; and
 - (b) examinations under oath; and
 - (4) produce employees, members of the insured's household or others for examination under oath

- (7) receipts for additional living expenses incurred and records supporting the fair rental value loss;
- (8) evidence or affidavit supporting a claim under the Credit Card, Bank Fund Transfer Card, Forgery and Counterfeit Money coverage, stating the amount and cause of loss.

3. Loss Settlement. Covered property losses are settled at actual cash value at the time of loss. This means there may be deduction for depreciation.

We will not pay an amount exceeding:

- a. that necessary to repair or replace;
- b. any special limit of liability described in the policy; or
- c. any applicable Coverage A or Coverage B limit of liability.

4. Loss to a Pair or Set. In case of loss to a pair or set, we may elect to:

- a. repair or replace any part to restore the pair or set to its value before the loss; or
- b. pay the difference between actual cash value of the property before and after the loss.

5. Glass Replacement. Loss for damage to glass caused by a Loss Insured shall be settled on the basis of replacement with safety glazing materials when required by ordinance or law.

6. Appraisal. If you and we fail to agree on the amount of loss, either one can demand that the amount of the loss be set by appraisal. If either makes a written demand for appraisal, each shall select a competent, independent appraiser. Each shall notify the other of the appraiser's identity within 20 days of receipt of the written demand. The two appraisers shall then select a competent, impartial umpire. If the two appraisers are unable to agree upon an umpire within 15 days, you or we can ask a judge of a court of record in the state where the residence premises is located to select an umpire. The appraisers shall then set the amount of the loss. If the appraisers submit a written report of an agreement to us, the amount agreed upon shall be the amount of the loss. If the appraisers fail to agree within a reasonable time, they shall submit their differences to the umpire. Written agreement signed by any two of these three shall set the amount of the loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting that appraiser. Other expenses of the appraisal and the compensation of the umpire shall be paid equally by you and us.

7. Other Insurance. If a loss covered by this policy is also covered by other insurance, we will pay only our share of the loss. Our share is the proportion of the loss that the applicable limit under this policy bears to the total amount of insurance covering the loss.

8. Suit Against Us. No action shall be brought unless there has been compliance with the policy provisions. The action must be started within one year after the date of loss or damage.

9. Our Option. We may repair or replace any part of the property damaged or stolen with equivalent property. Any property we pay for or replace becomes our property.

10. Loss Payment. We will adjust all losses with you. We will pay you unless some other person is named in the policy or is legally entitled to receive payment. Loss will be payable 60 days after we receive your proof of loss and:

- c. there is a filing of an appraisal award with us.

11. Abandonment of Property. We need not accept any property abandoned by an insured.

12. Lienholder Clause. The word "lienholder" includes trustee.

- a. If a lienholder is named in this policy, any loss payable under Coverage A shall be paid to the lienholder and you, as interests appear. If more than one lienholder is named, the order of payment shall be the same as the order of precedence of the liens.
- b. If we deny your claim, that denial shall not apply to a valid claim of the lienholder, if the lienholder:
 - (1) notifies us of any change in ownership, occupancy or substantial change in risk of which the lienholder is aware, provided that conversion, embezzlement or secretion by an insured having possession of the dwelling is not covered under Section I of this policy;
 - (2) pays any premium due under this policy on demand if you have neglected to pay the premium; or
 - (3) submits a signed, sworn statement of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us of your failure to do so. Policy conditions relating to Appraisal, Suit Against Us and Loss Payment apply to the lienholder.

c. If this policy is cancelled by us, the lienholder shall be notified at least 10 days before the date cancellation takes effect.

d. If we pay the lienholder for any loss and deny payment to you:

- (1) we are subrogated to all the rights of the lienholder granted under the lien on the property; or
- (2) at our option, we may pay to the lienholder the whole principal on the lien plus any accrued interest. In this event, we shall receive a full assignment and transfer of the lien and all securities held as collateral to the lien debt.

e. Subrogation shall not impair the right of the lienholder to recover the full amount of the lienholder's claim.

13. No Benefit to Bailee. We will not recognize an assignment or grant coverage for the benefit of a person or organization holding, storing or transporting property for a fee. This applies regardless of any other provision of this policy.

14. Intentional Acts. If you or any person insured under this policy causes or procures a loss to property covered under this policy for the purpose of obtaining insurance benefits, then this policy is void and we will not pay you or any other insured for this loss.

15. Replacement of Dwelling. If you replace your dwelling we will provide coverage on the replacement. This condition applies only if you notify us within 60 days after delivery of the replacement and pay any additional premium required.

16. Protection of Insured Property. When insured property is endangered by a Loss Insured, you shall use a reasonable means to protect the property from loss or further loss.

CIVIL ACTION NO. CV-06-93

PLAINTIFFS' MEMORANDUM BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO THE
DEFENDANTS' JOINT MOTION FOR JUDGMENT
ON THE PLEADINGS

Robert and Teresa Hodge offer this memorandum brief in opposition to the motion for judgment on the pleadings jointly filed by State Farm Fire & Casualty Company ("State Farm") and Mike Spear. For the reasons stated herein, plaintiffs ask this Court to deny this motion.

The defendants' joint motion is directed solely at Count III of the complaint. Defendants State Farm Fire & Casualty Company and Mike Spear's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings at 1. Count III is entitled "Negligent Procurement of Insurance" and alleges that State Farm and Spear breached an undertaken duty to procure insurance coverage desired by the Hodges.

The Hodges would begin by observing that, "[a]lthough Rule 12(c) [of the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure] authorizes 'any party' to employ the motion for judgment on the pleadings, it has its distinctive application only in the hands of plaintiffs," and that "[a] defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings is merely a belated Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.” Jerome A. Hoffman, Alabama Civil Procedure § 4.44 at 4-66 (2d ed. 2001) (footnotes omitted). Therefore, as State Farm and Mike Spear are party-defendants, it would be more appropriate to treat their pending motion as a request for a Rule 12(b)(6)-based dismissal for failure to state a viable cause of action as opposed to a Rule 12(c)-based judgment on the pleadings. The underlying question should be whether the Hodges should be allowed to conduct necessary discovery before there is any judicial assessment as to whether there is a factual basis to support a jury’s finding of a failure to procure desired coverage. In their complaint, the Hodges satisfied their burden of pleading a viable failure-to-procure-desired-insurance-coverage cause of action against State Farm and Mike Spear that would survive a Rule 12(b)(6)-based challenge. As this Court is fully aware, a Rule 12(b)(6)-based dismissal is rarely justified because the preference is to create a full factual record before there is any substantive ruling regarding an asserted cause of action. Radenhausen v. Doss, 819 So. 2d 616, 619-20 (Ala. 2001)(citations omitted).

As stated by the Supreme Court of Alabama, “[w]hen a motion for judgment on the pleadings is made by a party, ‘the trial court reviews the pleadings filed in the case and if the pleadings show that no genuine issue of material fact is presented, the trial court will enter a judgment for the party entitled to a judgment according to the law.’” Universal Underwriters Ins. Co. v. Thompson, 776 So. 2d 81, 82 (Ala. 2000)(quoting B.K.W. Enters. Inc. v. Tractor & Equip. Co., 603 So. 2d 989, 991 (Ala. 1992)). A Rule 12(c)-based judgment is most appropriate in a situation where, in its answer, the defendant does not deny the factual allegations in the complaint and where, based on those factual allegations, the plaintiff would be entitled to prevail as a matter of law. In the present matter, the Hodges factually alleged that State Farm and Mike Spear failed to procure desired coverage, and the defendants have affirmatively denied this allegation and, in fact, contend that, as a matter of law, the desired coverage was provided. In the present matter, there is a genuine dispute as to a material fact.

State Farm and Mike Spear cite no Alabama opinion or an opinion from another jurisdiction wherein the defendants were granted a Rule 12(c)-based judgment or, even, a Rule 12(b)(6)-based dismissal under similar circumstances. Instead, the State Farm and Mike Spear simply argue that, if the Hodges alleged that the subject State Farm policy provided some coverage for wind damage and if the subject policy did provide some coverage for wind damage, then this Court must find that the Hodges could never prevail on Count III. State Farm and Mike Spear utterly ignore the possibility that the coverage for wind damage contained in the subject policy was not the wind-damage coverage that the Hodges desired and that State Farm and Mike Spear undertook to procure for the Hodges.

In Thompson v. United Companies Lending Corp., 699 So. 2d 169, 175 (Ala. Civ. App. 1997), a directed verdict granted the defendants with regard to a wrongful failure-to-procure-insurance claim was reversed because, while an issued policy provided some of the desired coverage, the policy did not provide the “full” coverage that the plaintiffs allegedly desired and sought. The appellate court found that genuine questions of fact existed as to the exact nature of the coverage desired by the Thompsons and as to whether the defendants undertook the duty to procure the “full” coverage allegedly desired by the Thompsons.

In the present matter, the Hodges allege that State Farm breached the issued policy with regard to the wind-damage coverage contained in the policy and additionally allege that State Farm and Mike Spear failed to procure the wind-related coverage that they desired. As to this additional allegation, the Hodges effectively contend that the wind-damage coverage in the policy does not correspond with the wind-damage coverage that they sought and that the defendants undertook to procure. This additional claim cannot be dismissed or otherwise resolved based solely on a reading of the pleadings. The Hodges' factual allegations regarding policy provisions in their complaint as amended does not bar prosecution of an additional claim that the policy did not provided the "full" wind-damage that they desired and that State Farm and Mike Spear undertook to procure.

State Farm and Mike Spear are not entitled to a Rule 12(c)-based judgment on the pleadings or a Rule 12(b)(6)-based dismissal for failure to state a claim. Instead, after germane discovery has been completed, these defendants may seek a summary judgment as to Count III. At the present time, there is no basis for dismissing Count III.

Respectfully submitted,

David J. Hodge
